Read

Deuteronomy 31:6; Acts 16:26; Ruth 1:20; Ephesians 2:10; and Luke 22:19

Reflect

Several women of Seacoast share their voices, hearts...and experiences—the small “big” things they’ve learned during their walk with God. How has God spoken to you through these stories?

Women of Seacoast describe what it means to them to leave a lasting legacy:

1. Mamie Rand: Leave a legacy of consistency and constancy.
  - a. Who needs you to be a constant in their lives? How might you do this?
  - b. How has God shown his constancy in your life?
  - c. What areas of difficulty are still hard to give over to God? What is holding you back?
2. Rachel Davis: Leave a legacy of redemption.
  - a. What negative words are you hearing and accepting about yourself?
    - i. Do you recognize them as lies of the enemy? Why or why not?
  - b. What have you given up on, believing things are too far gone for God to restore and heal?
    - i. Do you believe we have a miracle-working God? Why or why not?
  - c. How difficult is it to ask God to soften your heart for someone who has hurt you?
    - i. If you have forgiven this person, how has it impacted you?
3. Taznerda Haley: Leave a legacy of true family.
  - a. How has your view of “family” limited what God wants to offer you?
  - b. Who is the true originator of a family legacy?
  - c. How has God shown you who your true family is?
  - d. Who do you consider to be true mentors, and how has their legacy become part of your own?
  - e. Who needs you to show them what true family is?
4. Debbie Hopper: Leave a legacy of trusting God.
  - a. How hard is it to see the plan for your life?
    - i. How have you had to trust God to reveal it to you?
  - b. Have you given up on a dream...or tabled it, believing it won’t happen?
    - i. How has God used experiences in your life to prepare you for what he is leading you into right now?
5. Blair Johnson: Leave a legacy of giving thanks.
  - a. When have you felt God’s presence most?
  - b. Has God led you through a difficult time? How did he make his presence known?
  - c. What small steps have you taken in obedience and thankfulness that led you to a deeper faith?

Respond: Where is God leading you? How can your small group support you?
