Reflect

When God calls Moses to go before Pharaoh and lead the Israelites out of Egypt, Moses asks “Who am I?” He feels unqualified to do such things. Why do you think God chooses Moses?

Pastor Greg describes God’s call to greatness:

1. God’s call on your life usually involves an invitation to do something that you think you are incapable of.
 - a. When has God asked you to do something you didn’t feel qualified for?
 - i. What were the results?
 - b. Have you ever been part of a team that’s done great things?
 - i. What were your initial expectations for the team?
2. There are probably legitimate reasons why you can’t respond right now.
 - a. What are some obstacles or thorns in your side that you tend to cite as reasons not to try something?
 - b. When has God asked you to take a step of faith and overcome those obstacles?
3. When you say yes, you invite God’s unlimited greatness into your limited capabilities.
 - a. How has God surprised you with his help?

Next Steps:

1. Be open to listening to God’s call for your future.
 - a. When have you tried to tell God what you needed, rather than made an effort to listen to him?
2. Be willing to trust in God’s provision for today.
 - a. Give some examples from the Bible and in your own life of how there is sometimes a gap between receiving God’s call and receiving provision.
 - i. What is God trying to teach us during this gap?
 - b. When have you asked God “why” something happened?
 - c. How hard is it to ask God to do something great, using your current situation rather than just taking the problem completely away?
3. Be ready to act on God’s plan before you are ready to.
 - a. How are you gearing up to act? What can you do to become ready?
