Small Group Questions: Part 2: Pastor Josh Surratt, Lynne Stroy, and Tomelex Copeland ©2020 Seacoast Church. All Rights Reserved

This week, Pastor Josh Surratt sat down with fellow Seacoast staff members, Lynne Stroy and Tomelex Copeland to hear their point of view concerning the racial tension that is currently happening in our communities. He encourages us to open our hearts and ears to the stories around us.

Reflect:

1. Read Acts 2:44
 - a. What does it mean that they 'had all things in common'?
 - b. What is the significance of this verse?
2. Jesus calls us to love one another as brothers and sisters.
 - a. What barriers do we create that make this difficult to do?
 - b. How can we be more like Jesus at home? At work? In our communities?
 - c. How can we improve our practice of inclusivity and understanding of those who are different from us?
3. Do a verse search as a small group and find some biblical truths to help you move forward in love and understanding for all ethnicities.

Respond:

Where is God leading you? How can your small group support you?
