This week, Pastor Greg Surratt uses the story of Saul and the lost donkeys to discuss how detours and distractions can actually lead us to our destiny.

Read

1 Samuel 9

Reflect

1. We all go through seasons where we feel like we are chasing donkeys.
  - a. What have been some of the major detours in my life?
  - b. Am I currently in a season of being detoured?

2. God often uses circumstances to lead you to your destiny.
  - a. Have there been detours in my life that I am now thankful for?
  - b. Have I ever experienced a detour that was actually a shortcut to where I needed to be?

3. The only thing that stands between the donkeys and your destiny is a fresh word from God.
  - a. Do I see life's detours as 'no's' or rather a new way to reach my destiny?
  - b. How can I recalibrate to consistently look for God's blessing and guidance?
