Reflect

In honor of Nxt Gen weekend, Pastor Jon Hohm spoke about the second generation syndrome, the difficulty one generation has in passing its values to the next.

Pastor Jon gave three ways we can create a healthy church by investing in the lives of the next generation.

People who live with a sense of responsibility live differently. We can all do our parts by opening the three doors of responsibility for the next generation:

1. Pray for the next generation.

- a. If you could pray one thing for the next generation, what would it be?
- b. How can you develop a lifestyle that prays for the next generation? What concrete steps could you take?

2. Point to Jesus.

- a. What spiritual battles were fought for you as you were growing up? Who was fighting for you and pointing you to Jesus?
- b. What battles can you fight for the next generation? Whom can you point to Jesus?

3. Pass down our faith.

- a. What did the generation before you pass down to you - both good and bad things?
- b. What do you want to pass to the next generation? How can you be intentional about doing that?

Respond:

Where is God leading you? How can your small group support you?
