Reflect

History can teach us a lot about the failures and victories of the past. The Bible is no different. God's Word teaches us about leadership, love, and other countless lessons that lead to an abundant life.

Pastor Josh Walters discusses the musical Hamilton, and uses the life of Alexander Hamilton as an example of why we should reprioritize our lives despite the many voices that are pulling for our attention.

1. Whose voice are you listening to?

- a. Where can we turn to help us discern the voice of God?
- b. Describe a time when you listened to your own voice. Where did that path take you?
- c. What is the difference between being alive, and truly living? Give an example.
- d. How can you be a small part of an eternal story, rather than the star of your own story? What's the difference?

2. Spend time in His Word every day.

- a. What are some benefits of spending time in the Bible daily?
- b. Hamilton lived as though he was running out of time. What can slowing down, and spending time with God do for our lives?
- c. How can you establish a daily rhythm of spending time in God's Word? How can your small group keep you accountable?

Respond: Where is God leading you? How can your small group support you?
