“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.” Pastor Joel Delph discusses why it’s important that we say no to our worldly desires, in order to see God at work in our lives.

Read:

Matthew 1:1-11

Reflect:

1. Say no to discounting God at work in your life. Solution: Count your blessings.

- a. In what ways have you seen God show up during difficult circumstances?
- b. What have you had to give up in order to see God’s blessings in your life?
- c. What do you think a “pure heart” means?

2. Say no to disconnecting from God.

- a. What do you do during trials to keep your focus on God?
- b. How do you make God a priority in your life?
- c. Where do you typically put your focus throughout your days?

3. Say no to believing that you know better than God.

- a. How can I place God above my perspective?
- b. Where do I need to submit my plans to God?

Respond:

Where is God leading you? How can your small group support you?
