Reflect

This week, we started a new series on the book of Proverbs. Pastor Greg Surratt encourages us to read Proverbs as a Church and provides ways that we can use the scripture to help us live well in the world.

HOW TO GET THE MOST OUT OF THE PROVERBS

1. Make a public commitment.

- a. Who in my life is a safe person to share my Bible reading goals with?
- b. How has being accountable to someone helped me stick with my goals?
- c. How can I plan out a daily rhythm to read the Bible?

2. Ask God for wisdom.

- a. In what ways has God given you wisdom in your life?
- b. Where do I typically seek God's guidance in my life?
- c. How can you apply the ABCs to get wisdom from God? (Admit you need wisdom. Believe God wants to give it. Commit to using it.)

3. Write down what you are learning.

- a. What would I consider my journaling style?
- b. How do you prioritize God each day?
- c. How do I process my thoughts after reading the Bible?

4. Multiply the impact.

- a. Who can I partner with as I study Proverbs?
- b. In what ways has God shown up when you've joined friends to study the Bible or pray?

5. Expect God to speak.

- a. In what ways does God speak to me?
- b. How do I know it's God's voice?
- c. How can I train my "ear" to listen to God?
