Reflect

Solomon, son of David, wrote Proverbs to his descendants and the Israelites. He wanted to give others instruction and wisdom for living. This book of the Bible provides a powerful path of life that includes acceptance of God's word and pursuit of it. What is your favorite Proverb? Why?

Pastor Adam Martin highlights the following:

1. The Price of Guidance

- a. Pastor Adam described that fearing God means to understand his "infinite wisdom". Do you fear the Lord? Why or why not?
- b. How does "...the fear of the Lord lead to life"? (Proverbs 19:23)
- c. How does pride block your relationship with God?

2. The Pursuit of Guidance

- a. Consider your circle of friends. How can you surround yourself with wise companions?
- b. Who do you know that is arrogant? How has the arrogance hurt him/her?
- c. Describe one of your trusted advisors and the help he/she has given you.

3. The Purpose of Guidance

- a. How is the book of Proverbs applicable today?
- b. How do you allow God to guide you?
- c. Describe your relationship with God. How can you improve it?

Respond: Where is God leading you? How can your small group support you?
