Palm Sunday | How to Make the Most out of Holy Week

Read:

Matthew 21:6-11

Reflect

Whether it's your first Easter season or your 40th, Pastor Josh Walters gives us three things we can do to get the most out of Holy Week.

1. Prepare

- a. Laying down palm branches can signify laying down past sins or baggage to make room for God. How am I making room for him?
- b. What can I add or remove from my week to position my heart for God to work? (Fasting, devotions, journaling, etc)
- c. What sins do I need to confess? Who am I holding sins against that I need to release?

2. Engage

- a. What would it look like for myself or my family to reflect on Jesus' journey to the cross by being in the Word everyday during Holy Week?
- b. How would you describe your need for a Savior? How has that need been seen in your life?
- c. In what ways do I have a posture of humility to receive what Jesus has done for me?

3. Share

- a. What plans have I made to meet with my community during Holy Week?
- b. How does sharing the meaning of this week publicly make me uncomfortable?
- c. How can my actions in front of others reflect the magnitude of the events this week?
- d. Who can I invite to Easter services?
