

Small Group Questions: Who You Eat With Matters

Two Big Questions: What Is God Saying To You and What Are You Going To Do About It?

©2023 Seacoast Church. All Rights Reserved

Read:

Luke 22:7-22; Exodus 12:2-14

Reflect

This week, we continue our series, Two Big Questions, What is God Saying To You and What Are You Going to Do About it? Pastor Joel Delph helps us digest what participating in communion means and the power behind it.

1. The table is for his people

- a. What does your current table look like? Think diversity and inclusivity.
- b. Who is welcome at your table and why?
- c. When was the last time you invited someone you don't get along with or agree with to your table?
- d. Who do you need to bring to your table to ask for or offer forgiveness?

2. The table reminds us what he saved us from

- a. What emotions did you experience the first moment you realized you needed Jesus?
- b. How can you reflect daily on the sacrifice Jesus made for you?
- c. What sacrifices are you making in your life for people who hurt you?
- d. When was the last time you openly prayed with gratitude in public before a meal? If this makes you uncomfortable, why?

3. The table reminds us what he saved us for

- a. What specifically has the crucifixion freed you from?
- b. What are you doing daily to live in gratitude for that sacrifice?
- c. God saved you for a reason. What are you actively doing to embrace your calling and purpose given to you by God?
- d. How are you encouraging others to find and live out their God given purpose?

Respond:

What is God saying to you and how can your small group support you?